

25 REASONS TO READ (and to raise your children to be readers as well)

Readers are more likely to...

1. Do well in school
2. Communicate effectively
3. Have confidence
4. Be productive
5. Concentrate well
6. Solve problems
7. Seek out and develop new ideas
8. Be life-long learners
9. Utilize technology
10. Get ahead in their chosen career
11. Earn a higher salary
12. Get a promotion or a raise
13. Cope well with life's challenges
14. Know how to relax and unwind
15. Be creative
16. Be well-rounded
17. Attend cultural events
18. Volunteer or do charity work
19. Be better conversationalists
20. Achieve rewarding relationships
21. Find common humanity
22. Be thoughtful, engaged citizens
23. Vote
24. Live longer, healthier lives
25. Be happy!

Reprinted by permission from "Raising Bookworms: Getting Kids Reading for Pleasure and Empowerment," by Emma Walton Hamilton. Beech Tree Books, © 2008

www.raisingbookworms.com